Post 3: Introduce the Proof-Reading

Elements: The Proof-reading Graphic

In Post - A GIF / a suitable animation that shows movement of eyes with a lens

Colors Preferred - To resemble the Logo of Prixled (Blue and Purple)

After Post 3 : The layout changes

The Layout would be Representing Artilog now

Before designing a Post we have to design a logo for Artilog. You may refer to the one below.

The logo for Artilog features a large, colorful hashtag symbol (#) followed by the word "Artilog". The letters are in a playful, rounded font. The colors of the letters are: # (pink), A (teal), r (purple), t (yellow), i (orange), l (green), o (blue), and g (red).

The colors above are artistic and can be used. The design is required to go bright and eye- catchy

Certain combinations include – Pink and orange, Yellow and green

DAY CELEBRATED: HUMAN RIGHTS DAY (A story and a REEL)

IGTV 1: Concentrate on right to education.

We can show it as a story with passion to learn to read

REFERENCE STORY: How I taught my Grandmother to Read (by Sudha Moorthy)

Elements : the characters in the story

End it with #VOICE OUT FOR EDUCATION

Caption for IGTV is not that important

Create Speculation for the New HASHTAG in both the reels

REEL 2 & REEL 3:

A Good music to create speculation is suggested at the background.
